The Chicago Society of the Sons of Maine gave a luncheon this afternoon at 1 o'clock in the large dining-hall of the Union League Club to Governor Henry B. Cleaves, his staff and the World's Fair Commissioners of the State of Maine. After function a short address was made by Governor Cleaves, his subject being the dedication of the Maine State building, which is to take place to-morrow at 12 o'clock. After Governor Cleaves finished speaking there was a general fctroduction and handshaking and a talk over old associations.

Germany's Building at the Exposition was opened today. The opening of the building was of purely informal character. Herr Wermuth, the Imperial informal character. The Duke Veragua and his family had been invited, and elaborate preparations were made for their reception. The building stands in the northeastern part of the Exposition grounds, All the material was sent from Germany, and most of it shows as an exhibit. Adjoining the main shows as an exhibit. Adjoining the main hullding is a chapel of the height of three stories. The main tower is 150 feet high. In the building are combined all the prominent styles of German architecture, and as a result Germany's Government building ranks among the beauties of Jackson Park. The chapel is built in the Gethic style, while the main building is a type of German Renalssance, the old Nuremburg architecture. The guests were received by Commissioner Wermuth, Mrs. Kaselowski, Mrs. Petri, Mrs. Spiess and daughters, Miss Spiess and Mrs. Mencke, and Miss Hall. Among the men were Governor Councillor Richter, Assistant Commissioner Franz Berg, Mr. Spiess and others. To the left from the main entrance and at the foot of the main stairway, the Cavalry Band of the Garde du Corps was placed. The members of the band appeared in white parade uniforms, with eagle crowned helmets, and were directed through an elaborate programme by Herr Rushweyhe. In an adjoining room on the lower floor a lancheon was spread.

Methodist Episcopal preachers of this city and its vicinity are attracting much attention to them-selves by their threatened withdrawal of the Methodist exhibit at the World's Fair should the Fair management decide to open the gates on Sun-day. We should exhort from the pulpit that people stay way from a Fair which will describe the Sabbath and keep open its doors on the Lord's Day. Chicago, properly speaking, is not an American city. It is composed of foreigners. There is not an American spirit there, and we cannot expect that there should be much observance of the Sabbath.

Dr. Landon's remarks called forth a heated discussion. The Rev. Dr. Roach opposed the resolu-tion, and Bishop Andrews explained the action taken by the bishops at their semi-annual meeting against the opening of the Fair on Sunday.

In regard to the fight the Methodists are making against the Sunday opening of the World's Fair, Dr. Sanford Hunt, of the Methodist Book Concern, said resterday: "After the appropriation of $2.500,000 was made by the Government to the Fair Commission on the condition that the gates should be closed, because the thicago people accepted the appropriation and, of course, on the condition on which the money was appropriated. The Methodist Church, in common with other churches, was instructed to make exhibits of books, papers, portraits of men prominent in the earlier history of the Church, etc. In harmony with that instruction the Methodist exhibit was made and is now at Chicago. It is this exhibit which will undoubtedly be withdrawn should the World's Fair management open the exhibition on Sunday." In regard to the fight the Methodists are making

GAMBLERS CHASED THROUGH THE STREET.

Detectives Lang and Sullivan received information last night that a gambling house was running at No. 130 and were met at the door by a big, burly negro, who refused to admit them. They tried to pull him away, but he resisted, and they had considerable trouble in getting him from the door. They finally succeeded in dragging him to the street. The de-tectives then summoned help, and four officers took the negro into custody. The detectives then burst the door and went to the second floor, where half way cut of the window. The detectives dragged him into the room and arrested him. They also found a number of hats, coats and unbrellas.

The audience from the Broadway Theatre was just coming out when they were startled by the unusual spectacle of about a dozen hatless and coatless negroes rushing madly up Seventh-ave., with policemen at their heels.

The police captured a wayoutal of paraneters.

The police captured a wagonful of paraphernalia at the gaming-room and $18 in cash. The two prisoners—"Harry" Wright, who owns the barber-shop on the first floor and who was on guard at the door, and Richard Thompson, the man who tried to escape by way of the window—were locked up in the West Thirtieth Street Police Station.

INFANTA EULALIE ENTERTAINED AT THE WHITE HOUSE

A TRIP BY TALLY-HO TO CABIN JOHN BRIDGE-TO VISIT MOUNT VERNON TO-DAY.

Washington, May 23.—The Infanta Eulalle found to-day that her exertions of yesterday had cost more the day, and to reserve their strength for the State dinner this evening at the White House. The single bit of outing on to-day's programme was a tally-ho trip by the famous aquedact road to Cabin John Bridge, nine miles up the Petomac, where the water for the city is carried across a deep ravine by a masonry span said to be one of the longest single across in the world.

In an adjoining room on the lower floor a lancheon was apread.

Printing Press Kow in Machinery Hall was opened at 4 o'clock this afternoon. The presses were tested yesterday and all necessary orders for the issuing of the afternoon papers had been received, so that everything moved amouthly. The presses will be used during the Fair to print the last editions of the afternoon papers had been received, so that everything moved amouthly. OBITUARY.

WILLIAM G. IRVING William George Irving, the head of the New-York State Private Detective Agency, died at his home, No. 184 East One-hundred-and-fourth-st., yesterday morning. His death may be attributed to constitutional disease, caused by a period of confinement in Ander-sonville prison. Mr. Irving had been ill for the last two years, but it was not until two weeks ago that his condition became critical. Mr. Arving was born near Newburg, fifty-eight years ago. Soon afterward his parents removed to this city, and here he received his education. When the war broke out he enliated in the 9th New-York Cavalry, and at one time he served under General Sheridan. He was at the two battles of Ball Run, and was with Sherman's Army on its march to the sea. About a year before the close of the war he was taken prisoner and sent to Andersonville The treatment he received there undermined his constitution, and when released he was in wretched health. However, he came to this city, and estab-

handed three negro murderers at Long Branch. Although a dangerous man to criminals, he had the name in Wall Street of being a courteous and softspoken man, who impressed one as being the possessor of a large amount of reserve force.

Mr. Irving was a Republican and a life-long roader of The Tribune. He was married in 1876 to Rachel Leslie, who survives him. The funeral will probably be held to-morrow, and the burial will be in Woodlawn Chmetery.

JAMES A. SADLIER.

James A. Sadlier, a member of the publishing firm of William H. Sadlier, of No. 11 Barclay-st., died from pneumonia at the Hotel Metropole yesterday. He came to this city from Montreal, where he made his home, a week ago, becoming ill soon after his arrival. Mr. sadiler was born in this city in 1843. He was educated at the College of Christian Prothers. Soon after his graduation he went Montreal to take charge of the branch house of the firm in that city. He established branches of the firm also in Quebec, Toronto and Ottawa. He had full charge of the Canadian business of the well-known bouse.

Mr. Saddler was never married. He leaves con-siderable property. THE DUKE OF MORTEMART.

Paris, May 23.-The Duke of Mortemart is dead. Anne Victurnien Rene Roger de Rochechouart, Duke of Mortemart and Prince of Tonnay-Charente, was born at Paris on March 10, 1804. He belonged o an old feudal family of Poltou, and received military education. In 1847 he was elected as a Deputy for Villefranche, and retained a seat in the French Legislature throughout the changes from the monarchy to the republic and the empire. He also served as a colonel during the Franco-Prussian war. in February, 1871, he was elected to the National Assembly from the Department of the Rhone, and taok a seat on the Extreme Right. He did not present himself for election in 1876, and has since led a retired life. He was a member of the Legion of Honor.

ANTOINE VON SCHMERLING.

Vienna, May 23 .- Antoine von Schmerling, the Austrian statesman, died to-day. Antelne von Schmerling was born on August onfederation, with Austria at the head. Archduke John, Vicar-General of the Empire, appointed him Minister of Foreign Affairs and of the Interior, but he found it impossible to uphold the pretensions of Austria against Prus-lan and other antagonistic fluences. He was Minister of Justice from 1849 to 1851 and Minister of State from 1860 to 1865. While devoted to Austria, he had liberal tendencies, and his presence in office was regarded as a guarantee of enlightened administration. He was a member for life of the Upper Austrian Chamber and was also for some time president of the Court of Appeal. Herr von schmerling was reported to be dying on January 5 of this year, and he had an attack of paralysis about the end of January. his presence in office was regarded as a guarantee
